ARTIST PROFILE

Kaysleem, born Kingsley Samuel (Junior), is an Afro Dance All artist from Abia State who grew up in Jos, Northern Nigeria. His music is shaped by rhythm, movement, experience and the different environments that have formed his journey.

THE JOURNEY

Kaysleem's musical journey began behind the drums. He was discovered by Atomen and MC Roy, the duo behind the music group H4C, who recognized his musical potential. From drumming, he moved to the keyboard, discovering new melodies and a wider understanding of sound.

As his passion deepened, he made the decision to pursue music full time. That choice eventually took him from the hills of Jos to Lagos, where he continues to refine his sound and develop his identity as an artist.

“Because of the love I have for music, I decided to go into it full time.”

MUSICAL IDENTITY

Kaysleem describes his sound as Afro Dance All — music built around rhythm, energy and movement, while leaving room for personal expression and lived experience. His background gives his artistic journey a distinct blend: Abia roots, Northern upbringing and Lagos experience.
